

November 7, 2011

Dear Parents,

I hope your weekend was nice!

This week we are studying the following:

Religion: We will review things about going to Mass because our first Mass day is on Nov. 22.

Reading and Phonics: We will meet the Super Kid, Lily. We will learn the letter L and the sound for l.

Math: We will continue counting to 100, place value, graphing, addition, patterning and much more!

Science: Signs of fall.

Social Studies: Manners; Thanksgiving

Homework: Please pray and read with your child.

Monday: Practice with your child the address, phone number, and birth date.

Tuesday: Practice writing the child's name.

Wednesday: Find pictures that begin with the letter l and glue them on the paper.

Thursday: Practice prayer with your child.

This week our school is beginning our Thanksgiving food collection project. We have had many requests for Thanksgiving baskets. Each grade is assigned a food item to fill the baskets with. Our grade is assigned boxes and bags of breakfast cereal. Please give generously.

We have bookmobile this week on Wednesday.

Snacks and Show and Tell:

Tue., 11/8: Jordan Vega

Wed., 11/9: Miguel

Thurs., 11/10: Jordan A.

Fri., 11/11: Caden

Mon., 11/14: Treyton

Thank you for your cooperation!

God Bless you!
